This clause will not extend to information which:

- 15.3 Each Party will establish and maintain adequate security measures to safeguard information and data of the other Party in its possession from unauthorised access use or copying.

If the Other Party does not dispute the validity of the Notice of Breach, it shall promptly undertake to cure the breach described therein. - 16.3 Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the cure period provided in this Agreement for any breach which is the subject of a dispute submitted for resolution in accordance with this clause will be suspended during foregoing dispute resolution procedures and commence to run on the day after the dispute has been resolved in favour of the Aggrieved Party or the dispute resolution procedures have been exhausted, whichever is applicable.

17. Mediation

Before resorting to legal proceedings, the Parties may (but shall not be obliged to) attempt to settle by negotiations between them in good faith all disputes or differences between them out of or in connection with this Agreement. The Parties further agree that (provided that both Parties consider that such negotiations will be assisted thereby), they will appoint a mediator by mutual agreement, or failing mutual agreement each Party will appoint a mediator of their choice and the two appointed mediators will appoint a third mediator to assist them and the Parties in such negotiations. Mediation shall take place in Liverpool or such other place as the Parties mutually agree. Both Parties agree to co-operate fully with the appointed mediator (or mediators), provide such assistance as necessary to enable the mediators to discharge their duties, and to bear equally between them the fees and expenses of the mediators, but otherwise each Party shall bear their own costs. Unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing, if mediation is unable to resolve the dispute within 30 Business Days from the Notice of Breach above then the dispute shall be determined by the courts of England and Wales.
